NSTF-South32 Awards

Today's research ... tomorrow's innovation

Join the conversation at the annual NSTF-South32 Awards Gala Event, 30 July 2020

#NSTFawards2020

Join us for the annual National Science and Technology Forum (NSTF)-South32 Awards, known as the Science Oscars of South Africa which award the top scientists in the country.

The finalists and winners will be celebrated at the live-streamed 22nd NSTF Awards Gala Event on 30 July 2020 at 18:30 for 19:00-20:40, broadcast on NSTF's You Tube channel. Fifteen outstanding South African contributions to science, engineering, technology (SET) and innovation will be recognised and rewarded. The students of the NSTF Brilliant Programme will also be recognised. They are the top students in the country that received 90% and more for physical science and mathematics in matric last year – two from every province.

Join NSTF's social media to hear the results as they happen. Who will be named the top minds at South Africa's 'Science Oscars'?

About the National Science and Technology Forum \(NSTF\)

NSTF is celebrating its 25th Anniversary! The NSTF is the largest national non-profit stakeholder body for all science, engineering, technology (SET) and innovation organisations in South Africa. It promotes SET and innovation through collaborative effort.

- It plays a powerful consultative role in SET and innovation policy matters
- It organises discussion forums to discuss solutions to pressing national problems
- It organises the prestigious NSTF-South32 Awards
- It organises the Brilliants programme that celebrates the top performers in matric maths and science, and provides motivation and inspiration to them to continue with studies for SET-related careers
- It runs a publicity and outreach campaign with NSTF Award Winners called the NSTF Share 'n Dare Programme. This programme provides role models to young people and promotes SET and innovation careers among learners and students, as well as awareness of the public

- It runs projects in partnership with its members, including disseminating news and information, a bursary directory, and making bursary and career information more accessible to young people and schools

About the NSTF

The National Science and Technology Forum (NSTF), established in 1995, is a broadly-representative stakeholder body for all science, engineering and technology (SET) and innovation organisations in South Africa, which seeks to influence policy formulation and delivery.

The NSTF Awards are unique in SA, recognising the outstanding contributions of individuals and groups to SET and innovation.

The science bursaries page provides information on bursaries and bursary providers for science, engineering and related studies.
